The Institute of Financial Services Zug IFZ of the Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts conducts a broad range of scientific research in the field of FinTech. This includes, among others, publications and events for the financial industry. The IFZ FinTech Colloquium provides a platform for researchers and industry representatives to discuss their research ideas and findings. Therefore, we cordially invite all interested researchers to present their FinTech related papers or projects, also at an early stage, on November 22, 2017, in Zug. The participation at the colloquium is free of charge.

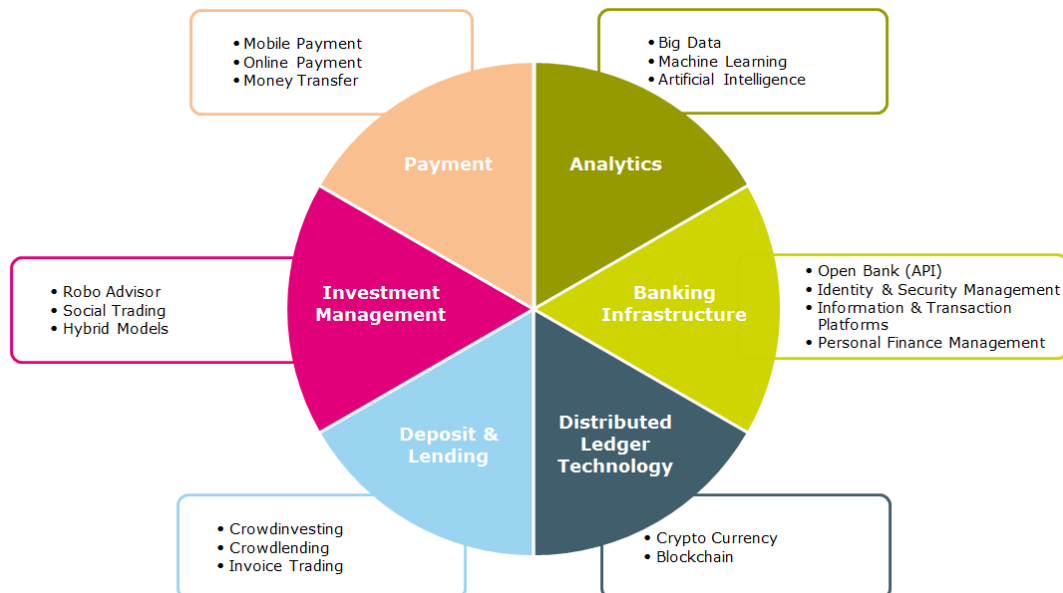

Important Dates

Submission of papers until: September 30, 2017

Notification of acceptance/rejection: At the latest three weeks before the colloquium

IFZ FinTech Colloquium: November 22, 2017

The colloquium welcomes theoretical and empirical research papers as well as extended abstracts. The topics include, but are not limited to, the following FinTech disciplines:

Papers can be submitted via the corresponding website until September 30, 2017. A scientific committee will select the papers which are admitted to the colloquium.
